The prices shown in this catalogue supersede those shown in any previous lists. Inflation inevitably increases book prices and we are therefore unable to guarantee the continued supply of any book at the price shown. However, it is our policy not to reprice existing stock and increases are only made at the dictates of the publishers concerned. By the same token, books go out of print and we are unable to guarantee their continued availability.

Books are sold on a firm sale basis only and are not supplied on approval. Books can only be returned for credit where faulty or where supplied in error.

When ordering, please add carriage charges of 85p for orders up to £8.50 and plus 10% for orders above that figure. Allow up to 21 days for delivery.

OVERSEAS CUSTOMERS (including REPUBLIC OF IRELAND) - payment MUST be either in sterling cheque or INTERNATIONAL MONEY ORDER.

An indicator on the right of each listing informs you of the edition in which the book is available :

Fern Hill

Dylan Thomas

Now as I was young and easy under the apple boughs
About the lilting house and happy as the grass was green,
Time let me bail and climb
Golden in the beryl days of his eyes,
And frizzled among wagners I was prince of the apple towns
And once below a time I lustily laid the trees and leaves
Trail with dainties and barley
Down the rivers of the windfall light.

And as I was green and carefree, famous among the barns
About the happy yard and drying as the farm was home,
In the sun that is young town only,
Time let me play and be
Golden to the merriness of his moods,
And green and golden I was huntsman and lordman, the calves
Sang to my horn, the foxes on the hills barked clear and cold,
And the sabbath rang slowly
In the pebbles of the holy streams.

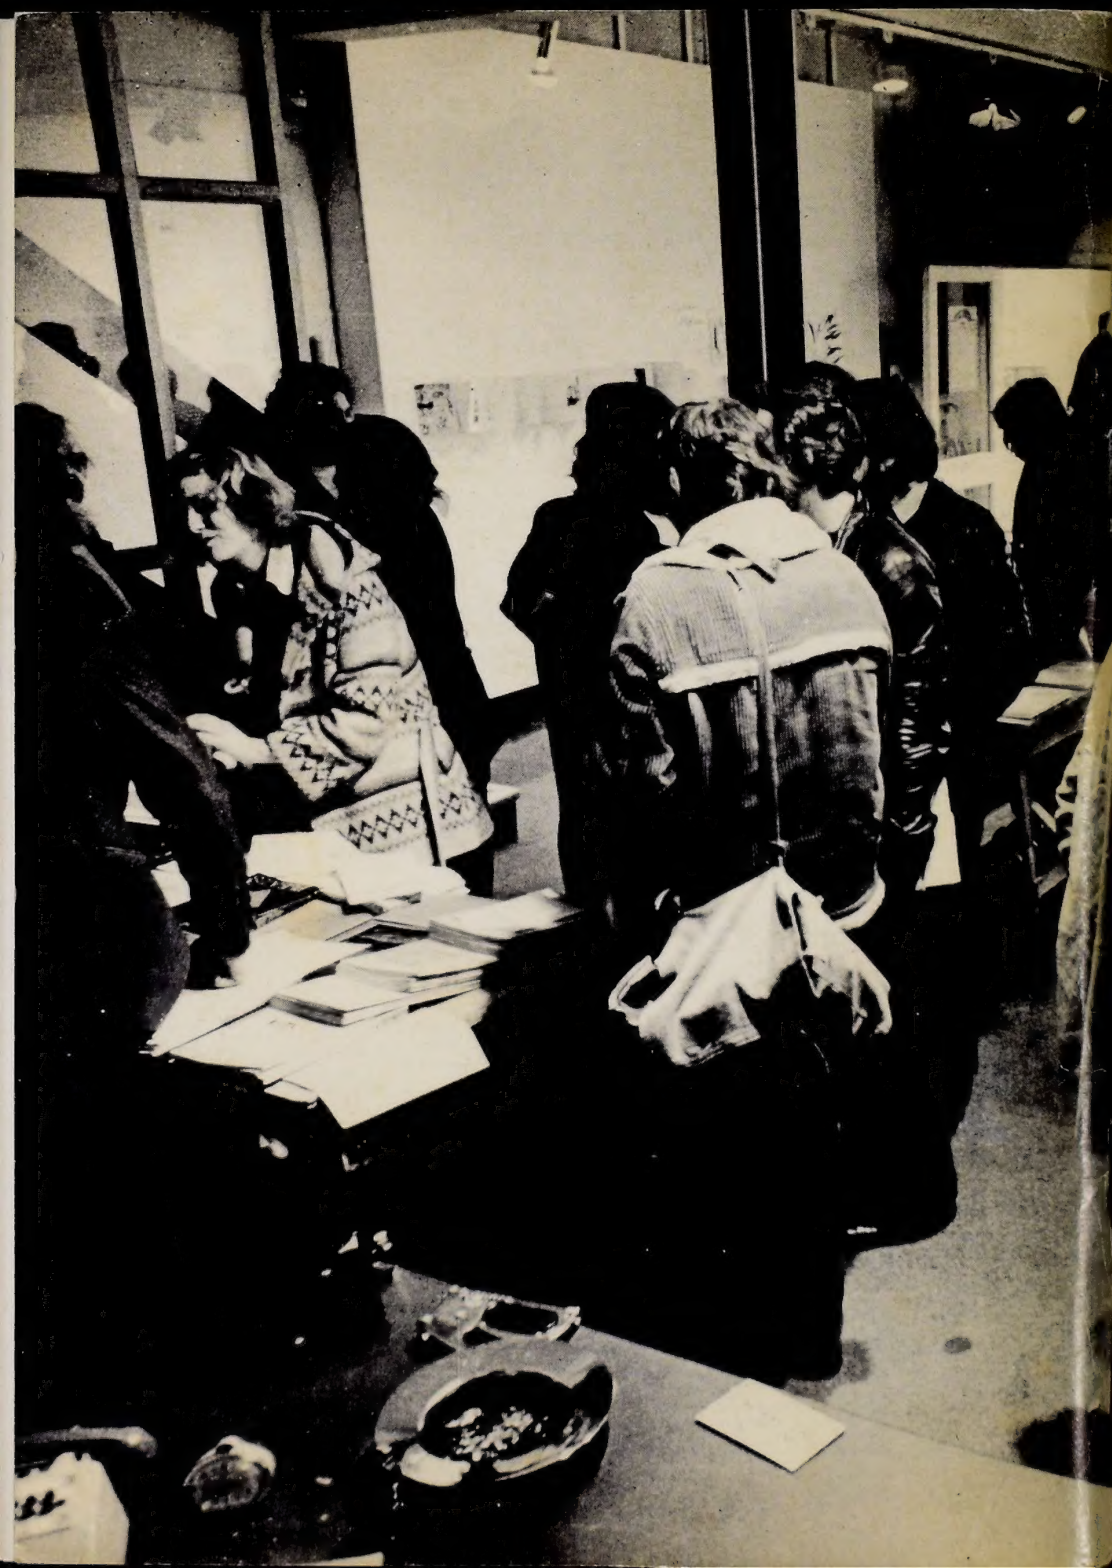

All the sun long it was running, it was lively, the hay
Fields high as the houses, the rains from the chimneys, it was air
And playing, lovely and watery
And fire green as grass,
And nightly under the simple stars
As I rode to sleep the cows were bearing the farm away,
All the moon long I heard, blurred among stables, the nightgirs
Flying with the ricks, and the horses
Flashing into the dark.

And then to awake, and the farm, like a wanderer white
With the dew, come back, the cock on his shoulder "it was all
Shining, it was Adam and maiden,
The sky galled and again
And there was green round that very day,
So it must have been after the birth of the simple light,
In the first, spinning place, the spellbound houses waiting water
Out of the wheezy green stable
On to the fields of justice.

And frizzled among figures and gossamers by the gay house,
Under the new made clouds and happy as the heart was long,
In the sun that is young town only,
I run my headless wags,
My wishes raced through the house high hay
And nothing I cared, at my sky blue trades, that time allows
In all his beautiful turning so fast and such merry songs
Before the children green and golden
Fell from him out of grace.

Nothing I cared, in the lamb white days, that time would take me
Up to the swallow thronged loft by the shadow of my hand,
In the moon that is always rising,
Me that riding to sleep
I should hear him fly with the high fields
And wake to the farm forever fled from the childless land.
Oh as I was young and easy in the merriness of his moods,
Time held me green and dying
Though I sang in my chains like the sea.
